

Introduction to Phylogenetic algebraic geometry

Abstract

In this talk I will introduce algebraic varieties and Phylogenetic invariants derived from finite trees, then speak about some widely used models for biological sequences such as the general Markov model and explain the technique of flattening which is used to find the Invariants for Phylogenetic trees.