

On representations with finitely many orbits.
Jerzy Weyman

Abstract: For a reductive group G the irreducible representations on which group G acts with finitely many orbits have been classified by Kac and Vinberg. Most of these representations are related to certain gradings on simple Lie algebras. We will review this theory and describe the related problems.