

Varieties related to algebraic group actions

Jerzy Weyman

In this talk I will review some open problems regarding algebraic varieties with many symmetries. There are several classes of such varieties and establishing their properties is closely related to representation theory of algebraic groups. Particular attention will be paid to representations of classical groups with finitely many orbits.